RAMS.

Rambouillet Rams, of unrivalled qualities, can be had at the Cañada de los Alamos, Cañada de Gaiti, Quilmes. These rams, bred by Mr. Latham with careful attention to physiological laws, and with a view to conciliate every desirable quality, i.e., perfect type, length of wool, closeness of pile, soundness of staple, weight of fleece, size of carcase and fatting properties, together with hardiness and procreative vigor, have no equals in the country as regenerators of the existing breed of sheep, the degenerate and unthrifty qualities of which operate to the palpable prejudice of the sheepfarming interest. The principle which Mr. Latham adopts in breeding these rams—which is distinct from that generally and universally adopted by the breeders in the River Plate—gives to his stock a power of transmitting type, which none other possesses in so high a degree, and from the want of which so much disappointment and degeneracy arises. 93 | 2m,s15

'STANDARD' TELEGRAMS.

The following are the only three telegrams which we have received from our brother editor since Saturday morning. We expect the whole cable party back this morning:—

Mulhall to Standard office, 74 Calle Belgrano.

River Plate Telegraph Co.,
Punta Lara, Friday, Oct. 12, 1866,
12.30 P.M.

Cornelia Henrietta, four miles from Punta Lara. At ten minutes past eleven a.m. yesterday commenced paying out cable with Castor and lighters. At 12.45 anchored close to shore; at 4.35 cable touched the shore, and all finished; at 7 p.m. sent two messages to ship. Communication continually kept up this morning. We talk every five minutes with the shore. Great gale last night; still blowing hard. All well on board. Dotterel lent good help. Leave for Colonia to-morrow (D.V).

Saturday, Oct. 13th, 9.30 a.m.
On board cable-ship 'Cornelia'
12 miles from Colonia.

Bad weather and delays in sending ashore for men prevented our doing anything yesterday. We sent telegrams in the morning (by a horseman) to the city, for publication in the Standard. Hope you got them.

Last night attempted to pay out cable, but it was too dark. Began this morning at 5.30, and have now got half through the work, being in mid-stream, with both lands in sight. The insulation is complete, and we have just sent a message ashore saying that we have paid out 11½ miles.

The Iron King cannot remain with us any longer, having to leave Buenos Ayres to-morrow for Corrientes.

We expect to finish the deep-water line this afternoon, and land the shore end at Colonia to-morrow, (Sunday) weather permitting.

All well on board. No accident from machinery or otherwise. Expect us in Buenos Ayres by Monday or next day.

M. G. M.

Saturday, 13th Oct. '66, 7 p.m.
1 mile from Colonia,

All well so far. We have all but finished. To-morrow we land the shore-end.

The French gunboat Decidé overtook us at sundown, and nobly came to offer us assistance if required.

Twenty-two miles of cable paid out. We shall have two miles over. We were very anxious and timid these two days back, and feared greatly for the fate of the expedition.

Thank God, the great work may now be said to be safely accomplished. Great praise is due to Messrs. Oldham and Felstead: they are both hoarse, and have lost their voices shouting.

It has been a most exciting enterprise.

A thousand congratulations.

My report is 13 pages up to to-day.

Expect us to-morrow night.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

On Sunday morning we published another telegram from our brother editor, and sent it round to the clubs. It is really passing strange what very slight attention the most important enterprise ever undertaken in the River Plate commands. In other countries steamers would have been chartered, and excursion parties got up to witness the laying of the cable; but here in Buenos Ayres not even a whaleboat has been sent off, and only the Standard at immense cost keeps up 'chasques' from the Punta Lara, for the benefit of the English reading public, and our active friends, Messrs. George Kean and Louis M'Lean, are constantly on the look-out for us. No one in Buenos Ayres would have known what had become of the whole cable party.

The Cricket Concert at the Coliseum was the great topic of the day yesterday. The facetious Mr. Phillips is making great preparations, and having laid aside the garb of Geo. Christy has assumed the role of Barney Williams. We hope he wil prove a successful Irishman in the Kilkenny assizes. The Musical Age is a repertoire of amusing songs. As the concert comes off on Wednesday night there is no time to be lost in securing tickets; there are only a few left at Mackerns.

Some of the boating party at the Tigre were horrified on Sunday by meeting in the river the corpse of some unknown individual floating down the stream. Many believe it was some unfortunate Brazilian or Paraguayan soldier. We hope the Port Captain will make some enquiries about this mysterous matter.

The Shamokin arrived on Sunday morning with the American Minister, Major General Asborth on board. We understand that she at once proceeds to Paraguay with Mr. and Mrs. Washbourne on board. If she meets with any impediments from the Brazilian squadron she will return to Corrientes, land the Minister and his lady, clear the decks, &c.

Respecting the very tragic affair which has resulted in the death of a young man belonging to the best families in town—Mr. Casares. We have done our best to discover the full particulars. A more tragic affair has seldom come under our notice: It appears that Mr. Casares had some questions with a Basque puestero on the estancia about the planting of a monte as specified in the contract. Two years of the contract by which the Basque held his flock of sheep on shares had expired, and Mr. Casares seeing that there was no attempt to plant the monte, had the puestero cited to the Juzgado; it seems that the parties were returning from the Juzgado on horseback, and Mr. Casares was advising the man to set about planting the monte, rather than waste his time in a lawsuit. The Basque stated that no other puestero on the estancia had to plant a monte, and that he would not do more than any other; high words are supposed to have passed, and the Basque, drawing a pistol, shot the unfortunate young man in the region of the kidneys. The capataz of the estancia coming up, and seeing his patron lying wounded on the ground, started off in pursuit of the Basque, who was on a good horse and flying away; he got out his lasso, and made several attempts to catch the Basque, but failed; he then pursued the fellow, and at last felled him with a blow from the ring of his lasso. He then tied him, and was conducting him a prisoner, when the Basque managed to get one of his hands lose, drew a small knife, and committed suicide. Meanwhile the unfortunate Mr. Casares was conducted in a cart for town, but he expired at Cañuelas. This was the wind up of this tragic affair, which has caused such a painful sensation in Buenos Ayres.

Unlike Lomas de Zamorra, Belgrano has no poetic associations; a man with all the British poets at his fingers' ends may walk all day through the streets of that town without meeting anything to awake the soul or strike a chord which evokes an association. Belgrano is a pleasant gay place, but it is neither town nor country, and its chief defect that it is too modern. Last Sunday, tempted by a pressing invitation and an extraordinary telegram of Watson's about cable beefsteaks, we started in the ten a.m. train for Belgrano: the train was crowded with pleasure-seekers and numerous passengers for the Tala. A large party of English gentlemen were waiting for the train at the Belgrano Station to start for the Tigre on a boating excursion: from the size of the baskets, hampers, &c., it was evident that the pic-nic was extensive: it was amusing to watch the efforts of our esteemed English friends to put the hampers in the waggons. Watson's breakfast is superb; it is recherche and unequalled, and we recommend our city friends, whenever they can take a run out to Belgrano and call for a cabls beefsteak not to miss the opportunity.

Ten thousand shearers are clipping away as fast as the shears will let them—the whole country is at last shearing—in fact, until yesterday, owing to the weather and the early stage of the season, shearing could not be said to have properly begun. Within a fortnight from to-day we may expect plenty of new wool in the plazas. The decline in gold is very unfavorable for the farmers.

The 'Toilers of the river' mustered strong on Sunday at the Tigre; nearly all the members of the Boat-club were there: it was a splendid day, and the bathing season may be now regarded as commenced.

On Sunday, Dr. Costa, the National Minister, left in the Rio de la Plata for Corrientes. The object of his trip is to have an interview with the commander-in-chief, and we doubt not will be as fruitful in result as his previous voyage.

The Rio Paraná arrived yesterday from the Uruguay. Everything in Entre Rios rules quiet: a gentleman who came down from there assures us that there is no recruiting whatever going on, and people in Entre Rios regard the war as all over and peace made.

We have to thank an English merchant for a sample of the first wool of the season, from a small flock in the partido of Chivilcoy, price $74, shipped per Calypso. It is the only good wool which has been sold up to the 13th inst. The wool is of a fine description, but of a dark color, and will lose about 60 per cent. in the scouring; it is perfectly free from caretilla, and has very little grease: this sample was inspected by some of the principal estancieros yesterday.

On Sunday the recruiting sergeants about town made a regular pounce upon a number of sons of Englishmen at present in town. 'Papeletas' are again coming into great request, and the sons of foreigners born in this country had better have a sharp look out, as we notice a great disposition to make them serve or put 'personeros.'

We understand that owing to the absence of the estancieros from town it is very difficult to proceed with the business of putting up the telegraph posts: the owners of the houses are nearly all out of town superintending shearing. This is a very serious matter, and we hope will be remedied. As far as we can gather half the house owners in the south part of town are estancieros.

Mr. Sharples, the active Agent of the Bien Hechora Insurance Company, has returned from the camp, having enrolled half the English and Irish people about the Fortin de Areco and Salto as subscribers. Mr. Craig, Mr. Murray, and in fact all the principal estancieros of those partidos have subscribed liberally to this prosperous Insurance Company.

Last week a very fashionable Argentine marriage took place; Mr. Anchorena led the charming Miss Riglos to the Hymeneal Altar. The bride and bridegroom belong to what is termed the haut ton of Buenos Ayres.

We regret to hear of a terrible murder in Rojas; a man named Ruso, who owned a café and billiard room in the town, whilst playing cards was stabbed to the heart by a militia man, and about $5,000 abstracted from his pockets. The assassin has been caught and sent in irons to San Nicolas. When will he be tried? When punished?

On the 30th inst. a most villainous attempt to shoot down an English estanciero in one of the Northern partidos was made by an English peon; luckily the pistol missed fire. The names of the parties we have received but for the present decline publishing.

Yesterday 10 carts new wool from the partido of Matanzas were sold in the Plaza Once de Setiembere at the rather low price of 73. The wool belonged to a native estanciero, and was not No. 1.

The Brazilian steamer Piraluy which left Rio Janeyro for Montevideo, brings amongst the passengers, Horacio Joaquin de Silva, and Antonio Giarvette.

The English steamer Humbolt, of the Liverpool line, was to have left Rio Janeyro, for Montevideo, on the 7st inst.

The steamer Maria has postponed her sailing from Montevideo for Corrientes and Paso de la Patria, until Sunday, 14th inst.

The following is a list of passengers per steamer Humboldt from Liverpool: For Montevideo—J. Lenuda, B. Eddy, Blanche Eddy, and M. Raund; for Buenos Ayres—E. Elliott, H. Risney, F. Kelly, E. Milford, Ann Smith, W. Seymour, R. Bayne, Mary Jane Bayne, P. Bayne, W. Noon, J. Ritchie, W. Parker, G. Tidblim, N. Lowe, P. Sullivan, J. O. Curry, F. A. Vilsio.

It is much feared some disaster has befallen the English barque La Zingara, from Liverpool to this port; she is now sixty-six days out; with about 80 passengers on board.

LATEST FROM LONDON.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

London, September 8, 1866.

To the Editors of the "Standard."

Gentlemen,

Notwithstanding the cessation of actual war, and the demobilization of the Continental armies, it can hardly be said that there is at present peace of mind in Europe. In England the excitement on the question of Reform daily increases. Crowded meetings in the open air, which the constant rain of our miserable climate is powerless to quench, continue to be held, and banquets on a grand scale are shortly to be given to John Bright at Rochdale and Birmingham. The last act of the Tories has aroused universal indignation and contempt. Mr. Edmond Beales, the President of the Reform League, and for many years the respected revising barrister for Middlesex, has been dismissed from his post on account of his exertions in favor of Reform. The Lord Chief Justice, Sir Alexander Cockburn, in sending Mr. Beale his dismissal, expressly stated that his decided political opinions were the cause, and fully admitted that Mr. Beale had fulfilled every duty of his office with ability and impartiality. Such barefaced and shameless persecution of a man for his opinions, has had the necessary effect. A public subscription was immediately opened by the people in order, as they say, "to reimburse Mr. Beale at least a hundredfold for the pecuniary loss he suffered in their cause."

On the landing of ex-Governor Eyre at Southampton that gentleman was invited to a banquet by his supporters, who hailed him as the deliverer of white men and women. The Earl of Cardigan, whose championship of the fair sex must have rendered him a valuable ally, was supported by the Rev. Charles Kingsley, who gave equal weight and value to the meeting by stating that we ought 'to take Mr. Eyre on trust," literally, however, giving no better reason for this confidence than that Mr. Eyre had walked 800 miles in Australia. So much for 'muscular Christianity.' It was noticed that not a single member of the House of Commons was present at this meeting, while on the same night a far more numerous assembly met at Southampton to vindicate the inhabitants, who protested in the strongest manner against being identified with the reception. Mr. Eyre must have prayed to be delivered from his friends, had not Thomas Carlyle, whose sentiments towards poor Quashee are well known to all readers of 'The Latter-day Pamphlets,' come to the aid of the ex-Governor, and headed a subscription to defend him against the legal proceedings to be commenced by those who insist that the blood of every English subject, poor and black though he be, must be accounted for.

Thus, at present, England is divided into two large sections—those who uphold certain men and maintain privileged classes, and the other, represented chiefly by Mill and his school, who uphold principles to the exclusion of all privileges. The latter, especially while rendering due honor to worth, opposes that species of hero-worship which has latterly exempted sucessful heroes from all duties and responsibilities to those who are only commonplace mortals.

"Trust not for freedom to the Franks,
"They have a King who buys and sells,
"In native swords and native ranks
"The only hope of courage dwells."

So sung Lord Byron to the Greeks, and bitterly do these words apply to the Italians of the present day. At this moment, a galled and burning spirit is pouring through their veins, and those who, by the sale of Savoy, bought the aid of the French Emperor, have enough to do by incessantly reminding Italy of her "obligations" to that great man, to keep them from snatching Venetia from the hands of her "benefactor" who dangles the City of the Doges before her eyes, but keeps tight hold of the string nevertheless. Will Venetia follow the fate of Rome? ask many. Even the facile King hides his head for shame and feeling himself unworthy of a crown, has twice begged to abdicate and return to the sphere for which nature evidently destined him—that of a bluff sportsman. Two men stand serene above the storm—two such men as, amid all the humiliations and meanness and trucklings of late years, still vindicate their country's honor and prove that the life-blood yet exists which made the Mother of Europe once a worthy Queen. Garribaldi and Mazzini! Happy the land that has given birth to two such men. She will arise again.

Amid all the political commotions it is one of the most cheering signs to mark how science pursues her peaceful way. The old Atlantic Telegraph is recovered from the sea, and a double chain will, it is to be hoped, speedily connect the two continents of the world. The British Association while holding its meetings daily reports the various discoveries of the past year and in the various countries of Europe. Scholars employed by the Government are busily poring over the archives to discover and calendar such as relate to their own country. The cattle plague is nearly extinct and the cholera speedily dying out. The continual wet weather gives cause for great anxiety for the latest crops; otherwise the harvest has been good and plentiful.

NEWS FROM THE CAMPS.

WEEKLY REPORTS for 'STANDARD.

SAN NICOLAS.

October 11th, 1866.

Sales of sheep, cattle, etc., in neighborhood.—One small lot of mestizonas at $30, and good mestizas and criollas at $21; buyers of capones offer $35 for the grasarias, but I hear of no sales at that price.

Señaling done.—The average will be, up to date, from 20 to 25 ₱ increase, though much loss, owing to deaths from empasto and other causes.

Land, rented or sold.—I hear of none. Lands here are in small pieces of two and three hundred yards wide, and large lots difficult to find.

Births, marriages and deaths in neighborhood.—A Frenchman was married here a few days since and left for Rosario to spend the honeymoon.

News in the town.—It is said Don Segundo Garcia is going to buy fine wools, and bale same to ship direct from here to Europe, for, and on account of, a prominent merchant in your city.

State of camps, etc.—Camps are splendid and sheep fat; wool looks as if it would be 20 ₱ higher than last year, although equally as well-grown.

Peones wages, and if wanted.—A first class man can realize from $300 to $500 per month, and shiftless fellows are dear at any price, but get paid from $200 to $300. Good men wanted.

Price of stock.—Cattle nominal: mares, do.; fine sheep, I think, none for sale, so prices are nominal, though I have heard of $45 being asked.

General remarks.—This Sleepy-Hollow is beginning to show signs of life as the wool season approaches, for two or three hundred thousand arrobes will be shipped from here this season. Wools of this partido, Ramallo, Pergamino, Rojas, Salto and Santa Fé are usually shipped from this port.

The shearing has been postponed on account of the weather, but now there is every prospect of a general commencement — some few commenced Oct. 1st., sheared half-a-day, when the rain commenced, so they have since had the pleasure of feeding their hands on carne gorda gratis.

Flocks are lambing heavily in this vicinity, but there are many losses owing to the high trevoil, as the lambs aguachar.

An Englishman was picked up a few days since under the barranca here, having fallen a distance of fifty feet. I went to see him at the Policia, but he was so far gone with drink and the shaking up from his fall that I could not get much out of him. Said he came from Lobos looking for work, that he had been a puestero somewhere with a man named Tom; didn't seem to know his own name, so I left him to sleep it off or die, which was the most likely of the two; shall call to see about him on again visiting the town.

Very little being done in the chacras this season, although labor seems to be cheap and abundant.

SAN GERONIMO.

Sales of cattle, sheep, &c.: 900 fine mestiza sheep at 21 rls. bol.

Señaling done: About 25 per cent in this immediate neighborhood.

Land rented or sold: None, though plenty to be got at 500 to $800 bol. per league.

State of camps: The camps are improving fast after the last rains; the frost and 'seca' having completely dried them up.

Peones' wages, and if wanted: We pay shepherds 8 to $10 per month, and general peones $13 or 4 rls. per day. On account of the number of 'arribeños' that constantly come down, we are never short of peones.

Price of stock: Sheep from 12 to 21 rls. bol., cattle by the cut 4 to $5, mares by the cut $2, fat for saladero $4.

General remarks: Being aware that many people entertain erroneous ideas about Santa Fe, I beg to remark that fine mestiza sheep will thrive very well on any hard grass camp that has a 'cañada,' not otherwise; and that the wool grows as long and strong as in Buenos Ayres, with the advantage of being free from 'carretilla' and dust.

AGUILA.

October 8th.

We have no sales of cattle or sheep in this neighborhood.

Señaling done: The spring lambing has been very good, and the young ones turn out well.

Land rented or sold: To be sold a suerte of good camp, belonging to Mr. Dothay, and facing Messrs. Mallman's estancia Germania, the arroyo Coralito forming the boundary.

News in the town: The Paris Exhibition commission is active collecting articles.

State of camps, &c.: Beautiful, and plenty of water in the arroyos and cañadas, so that there is no fear of a seca this year.

Peones' wages, and if wanted: We pay shearers 15 to 18 rls. per day; no peones by the month to be had at the usual wages. General wages of puesteros 1 oz. a month, no horses given; good peones 12 to 15$ nat.; good foreigners always wanted.

Price of stock: 1,000 sheep at 13 rls., with wool; 500 head of cattle at 5$ nat.; 500 mares at 27 rls.

General remarks: Shearing commenced in nearly all the large estancias on the 1st inst., wool beautifully clean and of very good quality. We shear by the day, and not by the head as your Buenos Ayrean farmers do; and though we have double the expenses in shearing, yet we have triple more benefit—in more wool and saving our sheep from those awful cuts inflicted by hurried shearers. We do not agree with some of your southern farmers that the sheep suffer from the sun when closely shorn; we breed the sheep for getting as much wool as possible from them, and not for them to bear it on their backs.

NORTHERN RAILWAY OF B. AYRES.

The report of the directors states that, as the whole line had been completed throughout the past financial year, the directors had deemed it right to debit the revenue account with all that was fairly chargeable to it, in order that every shareholder might clearly understand the actual result of the year's working. The directors had secured the services of Mr. J. B. Thomson, late of the Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway, who had reached Buenos Ayres in March last. The gross receipts were equal to those of the corresponding months of last year, showing that there was a fairly-earned balance in favour of the company in Buenos Ayres. The directors deemed this a satisfactory result, as the damage done by the storm of March last was being repaired; six miles of sleepers were being re-laid and the receipts were at their lowest, being the winter months. The traffic for the years ending March amounted to $3,247,667, or £25,981; and for the year ending March last to $3,819,951, or £30,559, showing an increase of £4,578. The receipts for the three months ending June amounted to $835,190, or 6,681*l.*, against $676,874, or 5,415*l.*, in the corresponding period of 1865, showing an increase of 1,266*l.* Tenders were invited for debentures at 12½ per cent., and application had been received and deposits paid upon about 3,000*l.*, which, together with 71*l.* received for interest, was placed to a seperate account. The directors hoped that, with the improved state and prospects of the money-market, the required subscriptions for debentures might be shortly obtained upon more favourable terms. They relied on the forbearance of the creditors until after the meeting, when the whole matter would be submitted to the shareholders. It could not, however, be expected that this forbearance would be further continued. The directors had not yet received the expected remittance fron the B. Ayres Government in regard to the guarantee. The balance-sheet, to the 31st of March in Buenos Ayres and to the 30th of June in England, showed that 982,567*l.* had been expended on capital account. The revenue account showed that 30,427*l.* had been received and 40,346*l.* expended, including 8,164*l.* expended in London, leaving a deficiency of 9,919*l.* The liabilities of the company amounted to 57,837*l.*, and the assets to 19,071*l.*, the directors being empowered to issue debentures for the sum necessary to discharge the deficiency of this account.

THE BRAZILIAN ADMIRAL'S OFFICIAL ACCOUNT OF THE ATTACK ON CURUPAITI.

On board the flagship Apa, before Curuzu, Sept. 24, 1866.

For some time after the fall of Curuzú, the fleet were actively engaged preparing for the attack on Curupaiti, which came off on the 22nd inst., and it affords me much pleasure in testifying to the admirable deportment of both officers and men on that memorable day. All were fired with the same spirit of enthusiasm, and even in the hottest of the fight, when shot and shell were hurling death and destruction on all sides, none was found wanting.

But in order that your Majesty may be better able to judge of the services of the Imperial squadron during the present month, I will briefly relate what happened since the 6th inst., when I last communicated with Your Majesty.

On the 13th. General Mitre arrived with 8,000 Argentine infantry, a small brigade of 2,000 men from Polidoro's forces were also landed. The latter were at once incorporated with our 2nd division, under Porto Alegre. The landing and disposition of the troops occupied some time; on the 17th all were in readiness for the attack.

At dawn on the 17th. a frightful hurricane swept across our camp, followed by a copious downpore of rain which continued with unabated fury for three days. A council of war was held, and General Mitre, Viscount Alegre, and I agreed with Polidoro and Flores that the attack should take place on the 22nd. It was then determined that whilst Curupaiti was being assailed by land and water, Flores with 3,000 cavalry should perform the preconcerted movement on the enemy's left at Tuyuty, and Polidoro sallying forth from his entrenchments at the Estero Bellaco, should fall on the enemy's front.

Although the squadron continued at intervals to bombard, and with effect, the Paraguayans worked away at their fortifications, and in the 19 days which intervened between the taking of Curuzú and the attack of the 22nd, the enemy had doubled the defences round the fort. And when the Allied Generals boldly advanced on the hostile position they were received with the most awful and determined resistance, and were finally obliged to recoil after hours of fruitless endeavors and frightful loss.

I must here crave Your Majesty's pardon for not entering into the full details of what the army did and suffered, my time will only permit me to mention all the fleet went through on that memorable day.

At 7 o'clock on the morning of the 22nd. the fleet being anchored as seen in the subjoined plan, I ordered the two ironclads to advance until within range of the fort, and to open fire on it and the enemy's lines. The other vessels now proceeded to take up their positions, as marked on the map, and the Paranahiba, Brazil, Barroso and Tamandaré, with the floating batteries Pedro Alfonso and Fuerte de Coimbra, and the chatas 1, 2, 3 (see map), commenced to blaze away at the enemy; so advantageously had they been posted that a couple of them could pepper away at the hostile position without being subject to the fire of the fort.

About 8 a.m. the enemy opened a most deadly fire upon the advancing columns of the army. At noon Captain José Maria Rodriguez succeeded with the monitors Brazil, Barroso and Tamandaré in passing the palisade, and prepared to rake the fort, just as the Lima Barros, Bahia, Paranahiba, Beberibe (with the Baron de Amazonas's flag), and the Magé placed obliquely with the fort, on the Chaco side, compelled them to dismount six 68 pounders, and some 32 pounders. I now turned all my guns on the fort, in the hope of keeping it in play while the land forces advanced; they had already arrived up to the outer fosse, where they were received with a galling fire of field-pieces and small arms. The gunboats anchored on the left bank fired only from the bow. Three hours later the Paraguayan fire was quite as lively, and as yet the allied troops had not gained the slightest advantage, in this emergency Mitre and Porto Alegre determined to call off their men and fall back on their positions in Curuzú.

Up to noon the fort of Curupaiti directed all its fire on my vessels, and particularly on the Brazil and Tamandaré, which suffered severely in the E. B. plates. Iron plates were broken, bolts were hurled in the upper air, and the casemated parapets of these vessels were fearfully mutilated.

On the Brazil two 68-pounders were dismounted, and a number of shots entered the casemating through the port-holes, wounding many, whose names I enclose.

The other ironclads have not suffered much.

On the repulse of the army the position of the vessels which had forced the palisade became untenable, whereupon I directed them to retire to their former position. The fleet had been actively engaged all day, and at length succeeded in dismounting 3 68-pounders in the fort of Curupaiti. The gunboat Paranahiba was hulled once or twice, but without much effect.

I manned the vessels on the Chaco bank with a battalion of the 14th volunteers: their sharpshooting was admirable, and committed great havoc among the enemy's gunners.

We have to bewail the loss of 21 hors de combat, not mentioning many others slightly wounded, among these is the intrepid captain of the 2nd division of marines, Dn. Elisiario Antonio de los Santos.

The ships on the Paraguay side suffered heavily from the frequent discharge of grape and small arms which the enemy poured in from the adjoining heights. I cannot omit the present opportunity of recommending to Your Majesty the gallant conduct of the respective commanders, officers, and crews in the imperial squadron, whose loyalty and energy was particularly conspicuous on this trying emergency; and I would wish to call Your Majesty's particular attention to the officers of my staff, who displayed the most laudable emulation, and might be seen in the thickest of the fight delivering my despatches with a promptness and intrepidity which merits the highest encomium.

The Baron de Amazonas, chief of the staff, continued to lend the most efficient services, and displayed the same heroism which characterized him in the Riachuelo and Paraná. The valiant conduct of my second lieutenant, Alfredo Lintback, deserves also special notice; in all the most trying moments of the campaign he has been ever by my side, and I can testify to his bearing as became an officer of Your Majesty's service.

To-morrow we hold a council-of-war, at which Polidoro has come to assist, to determine our future operations.

I have not yet received despatches from all my commanders: when they come to hand I will take the earliest opportunity to forward them to Your Majesty.

God preserve Your Imperial Majesty!

GEN. PORTO ALEGRE'S DESPATCH.

THE ATTACK ON CURUPAITY.

At 11.30 on the morning of 22nd after the fleet had been playing, with a steady and well directed fire, from 7 a.m. on the fort of Curupaity, and just at the moment when the ironclads Brazil, Tamandaré and Barroso had, in the face of a murderous fire from the frowning batteries, forced the palisade, as agreed upon with the Admiral, I ordered my men to advance in two heavy columns which with a reserve formed the army under my command. The latter occupied an advantageous position. I had ordered my left to approach the extreme right of the enemy's position crowned by the fort of Curupaity, the other approached the centre of the hostile lines. On the right a body of Argentine infantry advanced, with another as reserve.

It was a brillant sight; the men advanced with the utmost impetuosity and actually forced the enemy from their advanced position which consisted of 12 feet wide by 12 deep, surmounted by a high parapet bristling with field pieces. This first obstacle overcome we again advanced under a heavy shower from some 68 and 32 pounders. It was found impossible to gain the 2nd trench which was 27 wide by 18 deep, surrounded on either side by large earthen bulwarks extending along the whole line and crowned by heavy pieces, a large 'pantano' lay in front and was rendered impossible by an 'abatis' of felled trees.

With such enormous odds it was found impossible to dislodge the enemy who had concentrated almost all their forces behind these positions. Nevertheless I am informed that 40 veterans of the left column, effected a breach at Curupaity and actually seized 4 guns. Alas their patriotism proved fatal, they were overpowered by the enemy and not one remained to ask for reinforcements. I shall endeavor to supply Your Ex. with the names of these heroes in order that such acts of sterling valor may not pass unrewarded.

Our Argentine allies encountered the same insurmountable obstacles, and finding the most consumate skill and bravery of no avail, General Mitre agreed with me to sound a retreat which was performed in excellent order not only withdrawing our wounded but even carrying off our dead in the very teeth of the enemy who never once sallied from their lines.

The Paraguayans never ceased at their guns until about 3.30 p.m. by which time the last troops sent to cover our retreat had retired from their range.

Our losses have been heavy and serious, in this unsuccessful attack, as Your Ex. will perceive by the list of dead and wounded which I have the honor to subjoin. According to a letter I received from General Mitre the Argentine loss is 1,500 'hors de combat' including many chiefs.

I have now given Your Ex. as detailed an account as possible of what took place on 22nd.

God preserve Your Ex.

ON 'CHANGE.

October 15, 1866.

Paper price of ounces, $396
Do sovereigns, 121
First price of patacons, 24 95
Last 24 75

Cash sales, 136,900.

There was a sort of panic on 'Change to-day. Every one who holds gold has become nervous. There seems to be no stopping the present decline. Parties who during the winter were known to hold gold for large amounts, are to-day selling. The demand for paper is not so suddenly severe as to justify the present fall; and, in fact, the decline can only be attributed to successful speculation. The sales on long dates figure up to 151,000 at declining rates. In the morning the price for the end of the year ruled at 25, but in the afternoon sales for the end of November were quoted at 24.80. The omission bill has not yet been discussed by the Deputies, and many are anxious to know the great cause of the delay. In National Bonds there are some parties dabbling in time contracts. For cash nothing is doing, but for the end of the year 25,000 sold at 41.

Bolivianos, 1,000 at 20⅞.

The non-arrival of the Ibicuy, with advices from head-quarters, has caused a general surprise, and it is feared that she has run aground. It was stated on 'Change to-day that Minister Octaviano passed this port last week, and has arrived at Montevideo in the Itapicuru or Guaicaru, 'en route' for Rio Janeyro. In our advices from Montevideo we find nothing about his arrival, but H.E. was expected.

In discounts there is a good deal doing, and rates are steadily rising. Some first-class paper was done to-day at 1½, 60 days. Gold rules extremely abundant and very difficult to place.

In the North Plaza there was a trifling business done in wools to-day. Some 250 ar. north wool arrived by train at 73 dols, and about 800 ar. washed wool, but full of carétilla, at 90. Owing to the establishment of a direct line of steamers between Antwerp and the River Plate during the wool season, it is thought the wool trade with Antwerp will be unusually brisk this season. The very heavy decline in gold at the present moment is a very serious drawback for the farmer, as it must necessarily have a depressing effect on prices, and from the appearance of the market it is by no means clear at what price patacons will close at the end of the year: there are still two or three large holders of specie who refuse to sell, but should they turn round and realize prices must decline sensibly.

Dry hides rule firm in the Plazas and Barracas, and have an upward tendency—

Sales—20,000 Correntino, al tirar, 27 rls.; 700 Entre Rios, 39 rls.; 2000 in the Plazas (army hides), $115 m|c.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

101--Cangallo--103.

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauà & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cang from nine a.m. till Three p.m. on Week Days and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m.. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauà & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauà & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1863.
P.p. MAUA & Co.,
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p.%) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

HEALTH TO THE INVALID
BY
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS
LOSS OF APPETITE—LOSS OF STRENGTH—LOSS OF HEALTH.
The marvellous effect of this fine medicine upon the system is such as to immediately rally all the vital functions, the appetite is soon restored, a full flow of spirits quickly follows, the body becomes immensely invigorated with a certainty of restored health: fresh air and a little exercise are necessary to bring about a permanent state of things. Holloway's Pills impart tone and energy to the most delicate constitutions, and in a manner as to astonish all who take them. By their extraordinary virtues they have obtained the largest sale of any medicine in the world.
HEAD, LUNGS, AND STOMACH.
Look to the regularity of the functions of these foundations of vitality. Holloway's Pills restore to order the slightest departure from the proper action, and therefore may be considered as the regulators of the main spring of human life. Apoplexy can always be prevented if the proper action of the bowels be attended to, which this famous medicine never fails to accomplish. Disorders of the head and heart often terminate suddenly and fatally from obstructions in the system, which might generally be prevented by taking small and regular doses of this fine corrective.
No medicine can be so infallibly relied upon for ever coming all obstructions as these Pills. They never fail to restore a healthy action throughout the system. The printed instructions will enable all to correct the first symptoms of disease, and avert many serious maladies. Holloway's Pills soon change the sickly and sallow complexion, thus renewing the bloom of health. To females entering into womanhood, or at the turn of life, these Pills will be found invaluable. They should be taken two or three times a week as a safeguard against dropsy, headaches, palpitations of the heart, and all nervous affections, so distressing at certain periods.
SICK HEADACHE, INDIGESTION OR FOUL STOMACH, AND DISORDERED LIVER.
In such a deranged state of health the food is decomposed instead of being digested, and proves poisonous rather than nutritious. This derangement can be at once set right by a course of these purifying and digestive Pills, which have acquired for themselves an imperishable fame for the mastery they have constantly exercised over the digestive organs. Holloway's Pills increase the appetite, regulate the liver, repress biliousness, healthily stimulate the kidneys, and move the bowels in a more wholesome and natural manner than any other medicine.
DISORDERS INCIDENTAL TO CHILDREN.
The liver and stomach of children are, from many causes, often out of order, and they are allowed to eat many things that would disagree with their parents, hence their blood becomes impure, and liable to take any disease that is prevalent, and that in the worst form. One Pill, reduced to a powder, and put into a little water, given occasionally to children of twelve months old, and to those of three or four years, three Pills, and to others of seven years of age, four Pills—will always make children look blooming and healthy. Seventy-five out of every hundred do not reach the age of maturity. Holloway's Pills would not only preserve their health, but save the lives of thousands. Many people foolishly think that children only require a little medicine twice a year.
DROPSY.
This fearful disease often makes its appearance between the ages of forty and fifty, and might generally be prevented by attending regularly to the proper action of the liver and stomach; these organs, at this time of life, have a great tendency to derangements, when asthma, dropsy, or disease of the heart often sets in. The blood requires frequent elimination which no other medicines can so effectually perform as these purifying Pills, as they purge gently, and act immediately upon the liver and stomach, and thus remove all obstructions which at the turning point of life always occur. This dangerous period should be closely watched; two doses a week of about six Pills will ward off all dangerous diseases. But in all cases of dropsy the Ointment is a wonderful and sovereign remedy and must be effectually rubbed twice a day into the suffering parts.
Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following Diseases:—

Ague	Female Irregularities	Rheumatism
Asthma	Fevers of all kinds	Retention of Urine
Bilious Complaints	Fits	Scrofula, or King's Evil
Blotches on the Skin	Gout	Sore throats
